COLONEL C. C. HALL.

He Tells the El Paso People About Military Feature for the Fair

AND OF COURSE TALKED BASE BALL

Col. C. C. Hall, who has been in El Paso boosting the Albuquerque fair, left last night for Alamogordo, Santa Rosa, Tolarosa and other points in that section of the country and before leaving he learned that in audition to displays which he mentioned the other day, there will be a military feature to the fair, says the El Paso He said that he had just been advised by Secretary P. F. Mc-Canna that General Frank D. Baldwin ommander of the military department Colorado, had decided to send a troop of cavalry from Fort Wingate and had so informed the association.

This is good news to every one inrested in the attractive features of the fall event, and especially those who admire military maneuvers are aiways g.ad when they know that there will be semething to see in the military line.

The military maneuvers in connec ion with the carnival and other at ractions will make the fair the big gest event that has ever taken place n New Mexico, says Colonel Hall and he is more enthusiastic than ever over the fair

Colonel Hall, while here consulted with the local baseball fans and says that El Paso will certainly have a ball team at the fair to contest for the thousand dollars in prizes. Albuquerque will have a team in the contest. which is quite strong, but as it wi be in El Paso in a couple of weeks to play the Romnants of this ctiy, the El Paso boys will have a chance to ze it up and go prepared to win The El Paso boys will also have a chance to play the Deming team here in a bort while, and can size up that aggregation also and thus know just how to go to the fair to play a winning game, as it will know the strength of he leading New Mexico teams.

Colonel Hall says that he expects gordo, Tularesa, Dawson, Capitan Santa Rosa, Roswell, Carlsbad and goods, and could easily get rid of a that vicinity, as all these places are little cities, up to date ready to be represented at a fair that promises to do them as much good coming Albuquerque Wool, fruit, coal, timber, minerals and other products can be shown from the section into which he is now going and he is confident that he will secure a good display from them all.
